No basis for allegations on leaflets

Gerald Berg, 18, St. Louis, told the Press-Record Thursday afternoon he has no evidence to justify use of a Granite City police officer's name in "U.S. Labor Party" leaflets distributed here.

Pressed to explain the basis for drug abuse insinuations, the blond youth said such allegations relate to the party's assumptions linking various organizations.

He contended that police departments cooperate with the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, which he alleged is dominated by wealthy Americans who seek to subjugate the nation by encouraging drug misuse.

Disorderly conduct arrests Oct. 30 at the Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center parking lot were attributed by Berg to harassment.

Authorities say that detaining of shoppers by Labor Party leaflet distributors has been in progress since August, and that arrests were started after warnings failed.

was driving east on Eighteenth Street approaching the intersection when Mr. Wooley walked into the path of his car.

Woods said that he applied his brakes but was unable to avoid striking the pedestrian. No charges were filed.

Mr. Wooley was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital here and treated for lacerations to the back of his head, abrasions to both legs and his right thigh. He was transferred to the St. Louis

Wilmer D. "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, assistant secretary of commerce for economic development, U.S. Department of Commerce, will be the featured speaker at the annual banquet of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council Tuesday in the Meridian Ballroom of the University Center, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

A social hour at 6:30 p.m. will precede the 7:15 p.m. dinner.

Assistant Secretary Mizell heads the Economic Development Administration, an agency established under the Public Works and Development Act of 1965.

Its role is to help create jobs and increase incomes in areas of the nation with critical unemployment problems.

In addition to directing the programs of the Economic Development Administration, Mizell advises the secretary of commerce on economic conditions in various sub-regions of the United States.

Prior to being appointed to the federal post, Mizell served for six years as the representative in Congress from the fifth district of North Carolina, a seven-county area in the northwestern part of the state.

Mizell previously spent time in the St. Louis area, where he pitched five years for the Cardinals baseball team.

Officers of Gateway Council's board of directors, elected at the October monthly meeting, will be introduced at the banquet, including new Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City.

Government officials, agency heads and community leaders will be among those present.

Weather outlook

A period of two or three showers and possibly thunderstorms likely today, ending early tonight. High today in the low 70s. Low tonight in the low 50s. Tuesday mostly sunny and mild with high in the mid-70s. Mild weather will be the rule Wednesday through Friday with highs from the mid-60s to low 70s, and lows from the low 40s to low 50s.

Germans settle on local farms

(Fourth in a series of articles on Quad-City-area history—presented as part of the local U.S. Bicentennial observance follows. It was written by Mrs. Georgia Engelke.)

German immigration into Six-Mile Prairie began in the early 1850s.

The Germans took a prominent part in the development of the agricultural, industrial and social life of this area.

Many of these young immigrants began as hired men, and then became renters and gradually acquired farms of their own.

The old settlers were ready to give up the struggle with the floods and the hardships of the settlement of a new country.

They were as eager to sell their farms as the newcomers were to buy them.

They cleared the forests and broke up the virgin grass. With persistent hard work, they converted them into productive fields and gardens.

In the early 1850s, railroads were chartered in Madison County.

When a railroad was built through Six-Mile Prairie, the railroad station was called Kinder Station.

Calvin Kinder was a prominent citizen of the area, so the station was named in his honor.

Soon after this, people began

Key role in region is slated

High honors and extensive responsibilities are being placed on the shoulders of Granite City Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer, who has accepted the chairmanship of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council for the January 1976-December 1977 biennium.

He and outgoing Chairman Lawrence Roos, former St. Louis County supervisor, will be in the spotlight at the Gateway Council's annual general assembly meeting at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

As indicated by the map behind the two men, the jurisdiction is metropolitan in nature, affecting wide areas of Illinois and Missouri, including as nucleus the City of St. Louis.

Gateway is the regional comprehensive planning agency for the bi-state St. Louis area and also is the "area council of governments."

Hagnauer serves on the Gateway Council board as chairman of the Madison County Board.

The chairmanship of Gateway rotates every two years between officials from the Missouri and Illinois portions, reflecting the sharing of some governmental functions by the participating agencies as a means of achieving a needed level of regionwide coordination.

An example of Gateway's role is its decision last week to make a study proposed by Hagnauer on the traffic congestion stemming from the fact that some metropolitan area bridges are free and others collect tolls. Federal acquisition of some

Work on Corral resumes, halted

Construction work on a new lounge building at 5504 (near) Nameoki Road was halted Thursday afternoon on orders of City Building Inspector Robert Kelly pending a new study of drainage requirements and conferences with residents of the neighborhood in an effort to resolve their objections to the building project.

City Council members agreed to a temporary shutdown of the project last week after a delegation of residents living near the site of the new tavern objected to its construction on grounds that it would create serious drainage problems, particularly in the yards of homes immediately adjoining the lounge site, that it would devalue property in the neighborhood and would create noise, sanitation and traffic congestion difficulties.

Kelly said the building work will remain shut down pending further action by the council which is expected to hear reports in the controversy at

Grant store here closes

The W. T. Grant Co. Grant City store at the Nameoki

Village Shopping Center in Granite City was shut down at the close of business Friday night due to the firm's national financial problems.

Between 75 and 85 full-time and part-time employees here were affected by the closing.

A final going-out-of-business sale was described today as probable but not definite. In any case, the store is closed to customers at present.

Similar sudden shutdowns occurred at other Grant stores in the St. Louis metropolitan area Friday night.

The company said in New York its latest closings will affect 280 stores by late December and that it will limit its retail operations to an area "east of Cleveland and north of Baltimore."

Grant went under protection of bankruptcy Chapter 11 on Oct. 2 and won court approval last week for 30 earlier store liquidations. It is continuing to operate, and has court protection against creditor lawsuits while trying to work out a plan for paying its debts.

With 493 stores remaining district may present a volunteer leader.

Those receiving the awards were:
Kendall Hillmer, new scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 7, who formerly served as an assistant scoutmaster of Troop 7 and on the troop committee.
Hillmer also has been an assistant cubmaster of Pack 12 for three years; he is a member of the Order of the Arrow and has participated in all areas of leader training.

Mrs. Arlene Joyce Laub who became a Den Mother in 1964 and served in that capacity for three years. Since that time she has been active in the Women's Reserve and the Scouter Reserve, in addition to serving on the Pow Wow staff for four years. She also has earned the Den Mother award.

Mrs. Helen K. Miller, a Den Mother and Den Leader for seven years. She also has served as a member of the Boy Scout Troop Committees for two years. Mrs. Miller has been giving leadership to Pack 46 since 1969.

J. Richard Hooks, currently adviser to Explorer Post 104, has served as Philmont Expedition leader, director of Camp Nunn for three years and assistant director one year, a national camping school graduate, Vigil member of the Order of the Arrow and former assistant scoutmaster of Troop 102.

J. R. "Charlie" Shanks, now active with the district Training Committee, serving as chairman for Boy Scout leader training. He has been active in scouting since 1964, formerly serving as cubmaster of Pack 24 for several years, scoutmaster of Troop 22 for two years and assistant scoutmaster of Troop 22.

Mrs. Rose Lawrence, Madison, currently in the Scouters Reserve. She has been active in Pack 21, serving four years as a Den Leader and participating in the Pow Wow and other Cub Leader training courses and helping with roundtables and district and councilwide activities.

Kenneth Clark, scoutmaster of Troop 41 for the past five years. He has served since 1968 as a committee chairman and member of the Troop 41 adult committee. Clark also is an active member of the Order of the Arrow.

E. Ray Grisham has served on the council executive board since 1970, served as vice-president of the council and currently is president of the Cahokia Mound Council, a post he has held for the past two years. He has also been active as an Institutional Representative.

M-V Rotary winding up United Way drive

Several prospect cards for the United Way campaign being handled by members of the Madison-Venice Rotary Club have not been turned in, according to Rotarian Wayne Scannell, chairman of the M-V drive.

Scannell asked that Rotarians finish their two no later than Monday and turn in their reports to him.

In a business meeting of the club Wednesday noon at the Madison Recreation Center, Willie Walker, project director for the Madison-St. Clair County Urban League, was inducted as a new member by Rotarian Jack Friedman.

Rotarian Larry Palkes reported that reservations for

Illinois Bell to collect old directories

As part of a statewide program of direct recycling, Illinois Bell will pick up the old directories in the Granite City, East Louis and Belleville areas for the first time this year.

Directory delivery, which will take place in East St. Louis Nov. 6, Belleville Nov. 10, and Granite City Nov. 7, will be the first for Illinois Bell since the area was purchased from Southwestern Bell last January.

In addition to the directories picked up in the large communities, the company also will pick up all directories in nearby communities in the area which are served by Illinois Bell and are included in the regular directory delivery program.

tative of an explorer post. The Awards of Merit were presented by W. F. "Mick" Strange, vice-president of the Cahokia Mound Council.

In recognition of his service to others, leadership ability and true "Scouting Spirit," Thomas Hooks of Venice was presented a special award by Dr. Layloff.

Prior to June 4, 1971, Hooks was active in Boy Scouting and Cub Scouting in Venice and was the first member of Explorer Post 104 earning his Eagle Scout award. While attending a national Explorer Presidents conference in Washington, D. C., he had a diving accident that nearly caused his death and made him a quadriplegic.

After more than a year in hospitals fighting for his life, young Hooks became active again in Exploring.

Despite being confined to a wheelchair, he has helped organize three new Explorer posts, conducted a councilwide Explorer officers training seminar, in addition to conducting two councilwide Explorer planning conferences at Camp Sunner.

Officers installed in addition to Dr. Layloff are Mrs. Yee Throne, vice-chairman for cubbing; Taylor, vice-chairman for scouting; Thomas Hooks, vice-chairman for Exploring; and Dewight Smith, district commissioner.

Five charges against woman

Sharon Wiley, 28, of 1719a Edison Ave., was charged during the weekend with three counts of forgery and two counts of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The arrest last week was the result of an investigation into the cashing of three stolen checks at local banks. During the investigation, Wiley was introduced to cash checks at American National Bank and Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, a woman was accused by a juvenile, officers were told.

The forgery charges allege the cashing of two $10 checks at Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, and a $107 check at First Granite City National Bank, officers said.

When the Methodist Church of the Thomas Gilliam farm became old and unfit for services, Mr. Kinder suggested erecting a new building which could be used for a church as well as a district schoolhouse.

Non-Methodists didn't like the idea. They said that Mr. Kinder had "hooked" school money to build a Methodist Church.

After 1858, the site of Old South Granite was known as "Kinderhook."

In 1858, after the Indianapolis and St. Louis Railroad was completed, a station was built north of Kinder Station.

A railroad conductor, A. A. Talmadge, called it "Nameoki" because it was hazy and smoky.

He got the idea from the Indian origin of the word, meaning "smokey."

Later, the township was called Nameoki. At one time, Nameoki was a prominent shipping point.

By 1860, after a steady influx of German immigration into the area, the population began to grow.

The people became concerned about the education of their children and their religious life. Schools were founded and these German children were taught English.

On June 28, 1862, fourteen pioneer Christians met in the "woods" where the old District Central School was built later—three miles east of Granite City.

They were going to organize a congregation for the German Protestants of Six Mile Prairie.

These men were August Brandes, William Storck; August Ruswisch, Henry Ruswisch, Henry Deterding, Henry Harmeier, Louis Bruene, John Soechtig, Conrad Wolf, Fred Meyer, Christian Burdord, William Harmeier, Fred Kahle and Christian Peiper.

August Brandes served as temporary chairman and William Storck as secretary.

Corral

framework supports had not been secured and that it would present a dangerous situation to leave them that way. He asked if the workers could secure these joists before discontinuing work. I didn't want anything left that might result in someone getting hurt, I told Filcoff to permit them to secure the framework and then—no more work."

The new tavern is being built by B. C. Gitcho, owner of Corral Liquors at 3304 Nameoki Road. The lounge site is at the rear of and just north of the liquor store building, but is listed on the building permit as 3304 (rear) Nameoki Road. Gitcho has strongly defended the building, maintaining that drainage requirements have been properly met and that the new lounge will be an attractive addition to the business area.

A motion to close down the building work until objections of area residents were met was introduced by Daves after a petition signed by 63 residents of the neighborhood was submitted to the council.

Some of the aldermen at first protested there was nothing to be done to stop construction because the area is zoned commercially and that the city engineer had approved plans for drainage.

A majority of the 11 aldermen attending last week's meeting went along with Daves in an 8 to 3 vote after he charged that Gitcho owes nearly $400 in sewer rental fees on properties he owns. Gitcho said later that the fees are not relevant to the building issue and that he actually does not owe the fees. This will be decided in court, he said.

Gitcho said the sewer fees were unpaid by persons who bought property from him and later defaulted, leaving the unpaid bills.

Kelly said that prior to the shutdown order Thursday afternoon, framework was constructed at the building, but was halted on his orders and those of City Attorney George Filcoff.

"Filcoff called me and was under the impression that the motion passed by the council did not involve a shutdown, but only an order that no sewer tapon be allowed until the back fees were paid," Kelly said.

"When he clarified the shutdown order, he called Gitcho with instructions to shut down the work," Kelly noted.

"Later, Filcoff called me back and said that he had been informed that some of the

Arrest three

Three youths were arrested after police stopped their car in the 2900 block of Edgewood Avenue at 8:20 p.m. Sunday.

Police on patrol said they noticed a construction barricade had been moved into the center of St. Clair Avenue at Dale Avenue.

A suspicious auto pulled from a parking lot nearby and was stopped by police, who alleged finding open beer in the car.

The driver, Daniel Messick, 19, who resides at the YMCA in Granite City, was searched and officers alleged finding a bag of marijuana in his pocket.

Messick was charged with unlawful possession of cannabis and illegal transportation of liquor.

Passengers in the car charged with disorderly conduct were Lawrence Edwards, 19, of 3023 Myrtle Ave., and Steve L. Schaeffer, 20, of 2772 Madison Ave.

Halt burglary

A burglary at Superior Auto Cleanup, 2141 Madison Ave., was believed halted before the burglars had time to complete their work, it was reported Thursday.

Entry was believed gained through an unlocked window. Taken were a $140 stereo and speakers, three auto buffers worth $330, and a check protector worth $150.

Found stacked near the south door were an adding machine, cleaners, solvents and tools. The office and a desk were ransacked.

Arrest three

Three youths were arrested after police stopped their car in the 2900 block of Edgewood Avenue at 8:20 p.m. Sunday.

Police on patrol said they noticed a construction barricade had been moved into the center of St. Clair Avenue at Dale Avenue.

A suspicious auto pulled from a parking lot nearby and was stopped by police, who alleged finding open beer in the car.

The driver, Daniel Messick, 19, who resides at the YMCA in Granite City, was searched and officers alleged finding a bag of marijuana in his pocket.

Messick was charged with unlawful possession of cannabis and illegal transportation of liquor.

Passengers in the car charged with disorderly conduct were Lawrence Edwards, 19, of 3023 Myrtle Ave., and Steve L. Schaeffer, 20, of 2772 Madison Ave.

existing river spans could be a result.

As a planning agency, Gateway not only makes detailed studies but also comments to the federal government on many spending and construction proposals submitted to the U. S. through Gateway by other governmental bodies.

Principal fields of interest include health, river shipping and surface transportation.

Action taken at last week's monthly board meeting of the Gateway Council marked the beginning of the final phase in determining what transit improvements should be made in the St. Louis region.

Named by the board as consulting firm, with overall responsibility for the mass transit study to be made in this area was Daniel, Mann, Johnson and Mendenhall (DMJM).

The selection was made after 15 proposals were received from firms and seven interviews were held by the transit sub-committee of the board.

Gateway Council staff member John Cromwell said DMJM, a Los Angeles firm, is qualified to perform the study for this region, having recently completed a similar study for Seattle, and has done other transit studies in Baltimore, Minneapolis-St. Paul and Honolulu.

The firm of W. V. Rouse and Associates, Ltd., was selected to be the leading participating firm in the transit needs analysis, a study of regional transit needs with emphasis on the transit-dependent.

A division of Barton-Aschman Associates of Evanston, Ill., it has experience in social planning in the field of transportation. The firm will subcontract with DMJM to do the work.

Cromwell said the consultant-staff team will work with the agency's citizens' Transit Action Committee and, throughout the program, submit interim reports to the Regional Forum and its task forces (the citizen groups reporting to the board of directors) for their comments.

The transit needs study, with special attention given to the transit-dependent, is the first such study in the U.S. on this scale. It will be used as a guide for undertaking similar studies elsewhere.

The analysis of transit alternatives will cost $300,000; the transit needs analysis will cost no more than $180,000.

Eighty per cent of the costs will be financed by the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, with the remaining 20 per cent coming from local-level funds.

The study is expected to begin by January and will take a year to complete.

The Gateway Council board also has endorsed an approach for establishing a new health systems agency for the metropolitan region.

Creation of the new agency is required by federal law and it will be responsible for health planning and program development for the entire St. Louis area.

The Gateway Council action moves the region a step closer to the creation of a new health agency acceptable to both health officials and elected leaders, it was asserted.

The new agency will be a separate, not-for-profit corporation with close ties to the Gateway Council.

Officials close 'Dragon' club

The Green Dragon Health Spa in the 3900 block of Lake Drive, Ponton Beach, was closed at 6:40 p.m. Saturday for allegedly violating Village Ordinance No. 143, Section 2, "creating a public nuisance."

The allegation was signed by village police.

Mayor Floyd David Moss, Chief of Police Rosewell Bennett Jr. and Officer Donald Patrick went to the establishment and informed the operator, Ronald Beck, that "due to numerous complaints received by the mayor and the police" a business license issued Sept. 15 had been revoked.

Mayor Moss removed the license from the wall while the police placed signs on the establishment's door and in the window, stating that it was closed.

The owner and a female employee were advised to leave and not reappear or they would be placed under arrest, authorities said.

Mayor Moss said this morning the closing was by his sole order and "on my own initiative."

He said the village trustees reported they had received no complaints of the operation, but that he had received enough to warrant some action.

Industry to exchange recoverable wastes

Described as the nation's first industrial waste exchange, the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association was established Thursday afternoon in St. Louis, where details were reviewed for newsmen, industry and government agencies.

Harry T. Morley, Jr., executive vice president of the RGCA, announced formation of the St. Louis Industrial Waste Exchange, a trading organization through which companies can offer waste products for sale and buyers can bid for them.

He said any type of inter-industry commerce in waste materials has been rare in the U.S., and the St. Louis region has been no exception. Morley described the organization both as a direct service to industry and as an indirect service to environmental and resource conservation service to the general public.

He said the St. Louis Waste Exchange, modeled after successful European "waste bourses," is based on the proposition of establishing an economically viable approach to the marketing of recoverable industrial waste.

Morley explained that the RGCA, as operator of the Exchange, will serve as a clearing house for dissemination of information on waste or residual materials either available or wanted. Roland C. Marquardt of the RGCA executive staff will serve as secretary.

By putting waste users in contact with waste producers, the Exchange hopes to reduce waste producers' disposal costs and possibly even produce income. It will seek to conserve expenses as well as resources, "many of which may be rare and difficult to obtain."

Attempts will be made to reduce the volume of hazardous and other wastes which must either be disposed of in landfills or transported to destruction or treatment facilities.

The Industrial Waste Exchange intends to list only materials for which markets are not already established. All firms participating will remain anonymous through the use of coded listings.

Park residency rule challenged

A precedent in the State of Illinois as to whether or not a park district reserves the right to allow only non-residents within certain boundaries to participate in its recreational programs, could be set Friday in a hearing before Judge Thomas Gibbons, in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville.

A temporary injunction was granted last month by Judge Gibbons against the Granite City Park District which restrained and enjoined the park district from declaring Marge Krakowiecki "of Collinsville as ineligible for participation in the park's women soccer league under rules governing non-resident participation."

"To our knowledge," said Eric Robertson, an attorney representing the park district, "the issue is being presented for the first time in a court of law in this state."

He explained that according to law, a park district's land and facilities are held in trust for all the people "residents and non-residents alike."

"But, we (the park district) feel our programs, such as soccer, basketball, softball, etc., are not a land or facility, but rather recreational activities."

"Therefore, we have limited participation in recreational programs to park district residents, the taxpayers who support us, and non-residents within the Quad-Cities area. Non-residents are required to pay a pre-determined fee."

Robertson further cited financial reasons for the restriction, noting that the park district operates within a fiscal year period within a financial budget allotted to its recreational activities.

"For every sport there has to be a supervisor, and for every 20 participants it is necessary to hire the services of an official."

The issue involving non-resident participation from outside the Quad-Cities area boundaries arose when Frank Krakowiecki filed a complaint for an injunction after his daughter, Marge, who is a member of Sammy's soccer team which is in the Granite City Park District's Women's Soccer League, was removed from the team's player roster by park district officials as the result of a formal protest that the 16-year-old girl is not eligible to compete. Section Two of Rule One in the park's league rules was cited.

Section Two reads: Eligibility — (1) Residents of the Granite City Park District, who have no other residence except within the Granite City Park District; (2) Residents of the Quad-Cities area, consisting of Granite City, Madison, Venice, Pontoon and Mitchell, and unincorporated areas of Community Unit School District Nine who have no other residence except within the Quad-Cities or Community Unit School District Nine.

The league rules also note that women's soccer leagues are to include all females who are attending the 11th grade in high school by Sept. 1 of the current year, or women who have attained the age of 16 by the same date.

Krakowiecki's complaint relates that his daughter has attained the age of 16 by Sept. 1, 1975, and that she has been attending the 11th grade in high school since Sept. 1.

The complaint alleges that the park district rule of eligibility "arbitrarily, unreasonably, and unnecessarily creates and distinguishes between two classes of non-residents, thereby resulting in discrimination" against Miss Krakowiecki.

It asks the court to restrain the park district from restricting non-resident participation in the Women's Soccer League to non-residents residing in the Quad-City area, and allow any non-resident to participate and to immediately reinstate Miss Krakowiecki, and any other person likewise situated, on the roster of Sammy's team effective as of Sept. 26, 1975, pending final determination of the issue.

Miss Krakowiecki was reinstated to Sammy's roster effective Oct. 17, when the court injunction was ordered. Formerly the Women's Amateur Soccer Association, the league disbanded after two years of competing, and was formed this year as a Granite City Park District recreational activity starting its season here on Sept. 26.

Supplemental benefits depleted at GC Steel

(The Mill)
 The SUB fund at Granite City Steel isn't quite broke, but it was badly bent by the large volume of layoffs — to the point that no SUB payments have been made for September and October.

Prospects are not bright that the fund will build up before the end of the year.

SUB (Supplemental Unemployment Benefits) is a system by which laid-off employees who are members of the United Steelworkers Union — who have two or more years of seniority — are to receive pay to tide them over financially.

But with 700 employees drawing SUB each week through most of the summer, the fund quickly dwindled.

As much as $40,000 to $50,000 a week was paid out. Payments dropped to the 30 per cent level in August, and then were discontinued completely the past two months.

By agreement between GCS and the USW, payments drop when the SUB fund is depleted to 35 per cent of maximum. When it drops below 15 per cent, no payments are made.

The fund is built up by Granite City Steel contributions amounting to 10 1/2 cents for every hour worked by covered employees.

Its maximum funding is 15 cents for every hour worked in the first 12 of the past 14 months.

As soon as the fund reaches 15 per cent of maximum, it will again begin paying SUB claims — at the 30 per cent level.

But as stated earlier, this condition will likely not be reached until early in 1976, according to accounting estimates.

Those close to the employment situation report that it was not strictly the volume of SUB claims that depleted the fund.

An important factor was the payment of comparatively large benefits from the SUB fund to higher-paid employees who chose "voluntary" layoffs rather than working lower-paid jobs that were open.

Other benefits paid out of the SUB fund are short-work-week benefits and quarterly Earnings Protection Plan payments.

Women to train at Air Force Academy

Young women interested in applying for a nomination to the Air Force Academy freshman class entering next June must act immediately so their nominations will arrive at the academy by Jan. 31, 1976.

There are several sources for young women wishing to apply. Primary among them are Senators or Congressional District Representatives. There are other sources as well.

Interested women students may contact their high school counselors or write to the Admissions Liaison Office, USAF Academy, CO 80940 for more information and assistance. Prospective applicants also may call the Admissions Liaison Office at (303) 472-2460.

Women became eligible to attend the nation's military academies when President Gerald R. Ford signed the measure into law Oct. 7, 1975. The first contingent of about 150 women cadets will arrive at the Air Force Academy June 28, 1976.

Before the bill became law, the Air Force Academy could not accept applications from women. But now academy admissions officials are urging all interested women students to submit applications. Since the nomination process is somewhat lengthy, hopeful women cadets should act immediately, officials said.

Competition for acceptance will be keen and women must meet the same basic qualifications as men for consideration. That is, they must be at least 17 years old but not past 28 on July 1 of the year they enter the Academy; be U. S. citizens; be of good moral character; and be unmarried.

Academic selection standards will be the same for men and women. Just as men, women will be judged for leadership potential based upon extra-curricular activities—school leadership positions, women's sports and membership in civic and community organizations. Applicants also must pass a physical aptitude test and a medical examination. These tests will be scheduled by academy officials.

The four-year academic, military training and athletic program of the academy is physically and mentally demanding. It begins with the rigorous six-week basic cadet training course almost immediately after arriving at the academy.

Women cadets will live separately from the men, but nearly all other aspects of cadet life will be coeducational. At the end of the four years, women will receive bachelor of science degrees with majors in any of 21 academic areas. They will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force.

Services held for former resident

Funeral services were held on Oct. 29 at the Fourth Street Methodist Church in Rockford, Ill., for W. O. Morgan, 70, of Rockford, formerly of Granite City.

He died Oct. 26 at a Decatur, Ill., hospital. Born in Elwood, Ind., Mr. Morgan resided here 25 years prior to moving to Rockford 30 years ago.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary Morgan; two sons, David and Tom Morgan, both of Rockford; four sisters, Mrs. H. E. (Mae) Luaders and Mrs. M. E. (Irene) Steele, both of Granite City; Mrs. A. J. (Cordelia) Reimers, University City, Mo., and Mrs. R. T. (Muriel) White of Sullivan, Ill., and one grandchild.

Burial was in Rockford Cemetery.

NATIONAL POST with National Steel Corp. Miss Lillian B. Green has been appointed as director of economic analysis for National Steel, owner of Granite City Steel. She has been executive assistant to the president of Granite City Steel and in charge of the Analytical Department here. She will maintain her office in the local main office building at 20th and State streets.

Steele praised on encouraging job expansion

State Representative Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) has been rated highly by the Illinois Political Action Committee (IPAC) of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

The group made a study on how state legislators voted in 1975 on "key issues affecting jobs and business in Illinois." The report gave Steele's voting record an 85 per cent favorable rating.

In commenting on the result, Steele said, "It is especially important, in these times of economic strain, that as many industries and job-creating enterprises are attracted to the state as possible — and that present ones are provided a favorable climate in which to grow and expand."

Rep. Steele commented, "Between 1967 and 1972, the date of the last industrial census, 195 firms left Illinois.

This created a net loss of 87,000 jobs.

"That was nearly double the national percentage of net manufacturing job loss during the same period.

"Jobs are especially needed in today's economy," Steele said.

"The legislature, by its actions, can encourage or discourage employment opportunities in our state.

"I intend to continue to support those measures which will encourage jobs and employers to locate and remain in our part of Illinois."

REGULAR DIVIDEND

Post Corporation's board of directors last week at Appleton, Wis., declared a regular quarterly dividend of 14 cents per share payable Dec. 31 to shareholders of record Dec. 17.

Benko, Ward, Bunjan lead Warrior rally for 35-20 victory TIMELY TOUCHDOWN Saturday by Joe Ward of the football Warriors with three seconds remaining in the first half. When Ward escaped the attempted tackle by Roy Alexander, East St. Louis defensive back, and crossed the goal line, he enabled host GCHS South to move within five points, 20-15, at halftime. The Warriors' 20 second-half points earned them a 35-20 triumph.

It was the day after Halloween, but Coach Stan Wojcik's Warriors were full of tricks Saturday afternoon, treating fans to a 35-20 come-from-behind victory over the East St. Louis Flyers on the Granite City gridiron. The season-ending win gave South High a 5-4 record.

East St. Louis jumped to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, and held a 20-15 margin at halftime. South was ahead 28-20 after the third quarter.

Although South's defense held the Flyers to only one first down in the opening half, the Flyers capitalized in the early going with big plays and on Sophomore Quarterback Lorenzo Nicholson's throwing ability.

The Warriors took the game-opening kick at their 20 and drove 44 yards to the Flyer 36, where a fumble on a pass attempt was picked up by Melvin Kennedy and returned to South's 15-yard line before Warrior Joe Ward pulled Kennedy down.

Five plays later, East St. Louis led 20-0 with 7:15 left in the period. David Jones plunged in from the one, and the extra-point kick by Bronson Williams found its mark.

A strong wind faced South when it attempted a fourth down punt in its next offensive series. The ball sailed only 12 yards to South's 45, giving the Flyers good field position. Richard Townsend scored on a 45-yard aerial from Nicholson and Williams kicked the 14th point.

Late in the first quarter, Ward intercepted a Flyer pass at South's 34. The Warriors gained 13 yards in four attempts and Quarterback Bryan Bunjan hit Alan Benko with a 20-yard pass at the Flyer 33.

An aerial on the next play resulted in an interception, giving the Flyers possession at their own seven going into the second period.

South held the visitors to no gain, and a punt attempt turned into two points for the Warriors. A fumble on the snap was downed in the end zone by Benko, putting South on the scoreboard with 10:47 left in the half.

The Warriors made the score 14-8 two minutes later following a 22-yard kickoff return by Ward to the Flyer 45.

Carries by Benko and Frank Barunica moved South to the 30, and a Flyer penalty spotted the ball at the 15.

Ward picked up four yards in two runs, and a pass interference call on the next play moved the ball half the distance to the goal. Benko plowed through for six yards to paydirt with 8:02 remaining. Bunjan's point-after kick was blocked.

Less than four minutes later, East St. Louis scored on an 83-yard pass play from Nicholson to Townsend. The kick failed, but East St. Louis held a 20-8 lead with 4:52 left in the half.

Again the wind proved a factor. With 1:34 left, a Flyer punt traveled 52 yards to the East St. Louis 10.

A nine-yard aerial to Jim Jackson and a dash to the 35 by Benko provided a first down. Two incomplete passes left South with a third-and-10 situation and 16 seconds remaining in the half.

A double-reverse handoff — from Bunjan to Benko to Ward — netted South 16 yards.

Bunjan connected with Jackson on a 12-yard aerial, and the receiver lateraled for a "flea-flicker" TD. Hit im-

Trojans win thriller, 20-19

A three-touchdown performance by Dwight Chillers and a blocked field goal attempt with five seconds left to play helped Madison nip the Jerseyville Panthers 20-19 at Jerseyville Friday night.

The Trojans led 12-7, trailed 13-12 and led 20-13 at the quarters.

Following Jerseyville's forced punt after the game-opening kickoff, Chillers following ground gains from the Panther 40 scampered 23 yards to paydirt with 7:47 left in the first period. A conversion run failed.

The Panthers, receiving Madison's kickoff at the Jerseyville 45 went downfield on a 30-yard pass from Quarterback Jim Engelhoff to Tim Goetten.

Two plays later, Jeff Johns provided a one-yard TD dash. Johns' extra-point kick gave the Panthers a 7-6 lead with 6:40 left in the quarter.

Madison failed to gain ground in its series of downs and punted to midfield, but a fumble recovery by Prince Giles on a fair catch call and fumble gave Madison possession again.

Runs by Pete Fecurka, Quarterback Mike Woods and Curtis Bradley moved Madison to Jerseyville's 10 with six seconds left in the quarter.

Chillers then ran the remaining 10 yards to make it a 12-7 game. Jerseyville opened the second quarter of play with a drive from its own 14 to Madison's two-yard-line, but a strong Trojan defense refused to yield, forcing a change in possession.

The Panthers went ahead 13-12 after recovering a Madison fumble five plays later at Jerseyville's 39. Kevin Rowling ran for 34 yards, and a 27-yard aerial from Engelhoff to John Shortal for the TD followed. A conversion run was stopped, with 21 seconds left in the half.

Chillers put the Trojans ahead to stay, 20-13, when he returned the second-half kickoff 80 yards to the end zone. Bradley ran in for two vital points.

Near the end of the third quarter, a 42-yard field goal attempt by Johns fell short of its mark.

Madison had to punt it away on downs, and the Panthers had possession on Madison's 40 as the fourth quarter began.

In five running plays, Jerseyville was at the two. Johns carried it in to narrow Madison's lead to one point.

A conversion run by Rowling was stopped short of the goal on a tackle by Trojan Jeff Thompson, preserving the Trojans' slim lead.

Both schools exchanged punts after that, and Jerseyville had possession on its own 45 with 20 seconds left in the game.

Engelhoff later rambled 23

yards to Madison's 19 and, with five seconds showing on the clock, Jerseyville attempted to win with a three-point field goal attempt by Johns. The kick was blocked by Chris Horten, assuring Madison's victory.

Chillers netted 183 yards on 13 carries in the game, and Brian Eaves was the recipient of two Woods aeriels for 38 yards.

Madison had 353 yards rushing and 42 yards in the air, while Jerseyville gained 238 yards on the ground and 118 in the air.

Big North lead evaporates in 24-20 setback

GCHS North appeared enroute to an easy win Halloween night at Mattson, leading 20-0 at the half. But touchdown nullifying penalties and an onside kick recovery by the Green Wave returned to "haunt" North High and the hosts gained a 24-20 victory.

The Steelers led 13-0, 20-0 and 20-12 at the quarters. With 8:10 left in the first quarter, Bruce Jateff capped a 70-yard drive, including the 37-yard ramble and a 15-yard run by Richard Schmidt, with a one-yard slam into the end zone. But a flag on the play nullified the apparent touchdown, forcing the Steelers to try again from the seven.

Jateff gained six yards in three attempts before Joe O'Gara gathered in a pass in the end zone from quarterback Greg Corey.

Corey's extra-point kick was good for a 7-0 Steelers lead with 6:15 left in the first period. O'Gara got his second TD of the game four minutes later after Mattson took the ensuing kickoff. The hosts picked up two first downs before becoming bogged down at the Steelers 47. O'Gara blocked a punt attempt, scooped up the ball at Mattson's 45 and ran it for a six-point Corey's kick for an extra point was blocked.

Jateff provided a two-yard run to paydirt with eight minutes left in the half, following a short drive from the Mattson 23. South had taken possession of the ball when Mattson failed to garner a first down on a fourth-down pass completion.

Corey's kick over the crossbar gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage.

Mattson threatened to score later in the first half, moving from his 45 to North's 31 before quarterback Scott Brown's aerial was grabbed by Steeler Larry Schleicher at the 18 for the game's only interception. Schleicher also was credited with preventing a Green Wave TD with seven seconds left on the clock before halftime.

After the interception, North failed to gain ground on downs and strong, gusty wind resulted in a nine-yard punt downed at North's 29-yard-line. Mattson's Steve Sorenson carried to the 24, and then ran 18 yards to the six, where he was downed by Schleicher, as the half ended.

Sorenson wasted no time in putting his team on the board after the second half opened, North taking the kick and then being forced to kick it away, into the wind, to the Steeler 46. The senior Green Wave halfback carried for gains of 14, four and four yards before sweeping through the left side for a 29-yard TD run. A pass conversion attempt failed and left the score at 20-6.

Steeler Fred Clay was injured on a 24-yard punt and later returned to the game. With 3:05 left in the third period, Sorenson turned a fourth down and nine yards to punt situation into new life for Mattson when he faked a punt at his 49 and then scrambled downfield to the Steeler 38.

Sorenson then carried, in two plays to North's 12, aided by a 15-yard Steeler penalty, and then made the score 20-10 on a pitchout and run into the end zone.

The final period of play opened with North ready to punt the ball from its 28. Mike Sherman's kick was touched by an opposing player at the Steeler 41, and Schleicher picked it up for a 59-yard run into Mattson's end zone. However, a Granite City penalty on the play nullified the TD, giving Mattson possession at North's 41.

Mattson used 11 downs in driving to North's two-yard-line before Scott carried the ball in on a quarterback keep. The Green Wave trailed by two, 20-18, after a two-point run attempt by Sorenson was stopped. Mattson recovered its own onside kick at North's 47. After a series of ground plays moved the line of scrimmage to the 31, Sorenson broke through the right side of the Steeler line toward the end zone. He was stopped by O'Gara and Schleicher at the 11.

A flag on the carry heralded a penalty against North and moved the ball to the six. Mattson was held by North's defense three times for no gain before Scott faked a handoff, spun and then cranked through the line for a go-ahead touchdown.

Taking the next kickoff, Corey, who completed 10 of 18 aerials for 120 yards, hit on consecutive passes to Brian Smith, Leo Pelek, Schleicher and Clay, to place the ball at Mattson's 11.

The Steelers saw their hopes of a game-winning TD vanish after a Corey-4-Pelek, hit on consecutive passes to Brian Smith, Leo Pelek, Schleicher and Clay, to place the ball at Mattson's 11.

To wrap up its victory, the Green Waves ran out the clock on the ground.

Mattson was held to 16 yards in the end zone and GCHS ran North on yards rushing, 268-102.

Warriors, Steelers win own tourneys, meet here to decide state soccer entry

The Steelers of GCHS North and the Warriors of GCHS South will clash at 2 p.m. tomorrow on North High's soccer field to decide a sectional victor, and also which team will represent Granite City in the state tournament at Normal, Ill.

North High defeated Collinsville 2-0 Saturday in the Steeler sub-sectional final, and South High downed Assumption 4-2 in the Warrior sub-sectional final contest, both on Saturday. Tomorrow's meeting of the two Granite City schools marks the second time in two seasons South and North competed against each other for sectional honors. Last year the Steelers posted a 2-1 overtime win over South to advance into the state finals.

Assumption's Pioneers entered Saturday's contest against South High off a 2-1 victory Thursday over Cahokia at the Warriors sub-sectional. South High's victory Saturday over the Pioneers came on a come-from-behind effort. Assumption scored after 8:18 of the first period on a goal by Tom Conetti, and again after 4:15 of the second period on a goal by Don Frolker following a scramble for the ball between him and South's Greg Feigl.

Warrior David Goldschmidt cut Assumption's lead in half after 2:36 of the third quarter, scoring unassisted with a left footed shot from 18 yards in front of the net. Rick Fernandez deadheaded the contest at 2:22 after 3:04 of the third quarter with a penalty kick after Mark Goldschmidt was fouled by a defender. South garnered the go ahead goal after 3:14 of the final period off the foot of Fernandez, assisted by Mark Goldschmidt. Fernandez took a pass from Goldschmidt, and Assumption's goalkeeper left the net in anticipation of another pass. Instead, Fernandez sent the ball sailing in behind the goal.

David Goldschmidt put the game away for the Warriors, assisted by brother Mark, 45 seconds later. "It was one of the most beautiful plays of the game," said South's Gene Baker. Mike Voegel threw the ball inbounds to Mark, who then headed it to David for a power kick into the net from 20 yards away.

Warrior Mark Spiroff will take Mark Goldschmidt's striker position in tomorrow's contest. He suffered a broken collarbone Saturday and is sidelined for the remainder of the season. The victory was South's 16th straight for an 18-2 record. South doubled Assumption's shots-on-goal, 22-11, and fouls were plentiful—South 23 and Assumption 24.

Warrior Randy Lyeria had seven saves as goalkeeper, as did the Pioneer goalkeeper. South had the edge on corners, 7-4. The first two quarters of play at North Saturday resulted in neither side scoring. The Steelers broke the ice after seven minutes of the third period on a penalty kick by Kevin Gavlick.

"Eric Painter was racing neck-to-neck with a Collinsville player, both bearing down on the goal, when Painter was accidentally tripped," noted North's Bob Kehoe. With 1:55 left in the fourth period, Collinsville's Ray Klein was chasing the ball back toward the Kahok goal, with Steeler Dave Roberson in pursuit. Klein passed the ball to goalkeeper Bill Swip, who was drawn away from the net. Roberson scored when the defender slipped and fell down, leaving an open goal. Scoring attempts were held to a minimum, six apiece for the two schools. Steeler Rick Demaree was credited with four saves, and Swip with none. North committed the most fouls, 22-18, and Collinsville held the edge on corners, 3-1.

RHODES BURGLARY
Items valued at about $715 were stolen from the home of James Rhodes, 123 Rhodes St., it was discovered at 9:30 p.m. Thursday. A neighbor reported the burglar had entered the house Thursday afternoon. Taken were seven fishing rods and reels, an assortment of mechanical tools, a wedding ring set, china and an exterminator's spraying equipment.

SUSPECT CAUGHT
Madison police arrested a 28-year-old African man at 2 p.m. Sunday as a suspect in the burglary of the apartment of John Ingram, 81 Jackson St. Apt. 2. Madison. A portable television, an eight-track tape player and a pink and yellow bedspread were recovered. The arrest of the suspect was made with the assistance of the Venice police.

3 held in shooting

Three Venice men are being held pending investigation of a shooting at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the North Venice Grill, 1000 Calhoun Ave., and of shots fired at a Venice police car near the scene.

Police, investigating a report of shots fired into the grill from across the street, was shot at upon arrival, with a bullet striking the squad car's passenger side an inch above the window.

A second police car sent to investigate was showered with bricks near Logan Avenue and Weaver Street.

Police in the first squad car drove away, circling the block. Officers said they observed the three suspects enter a parked auto near the grill and drive south on Weaver Street, and then west to Lee Wright Homes, 1000 Calhoun Ave., and of shots fired at a Venice police car near the scene.

A 22 caliber pistol was recovered near where one of the men was captured. No one was injured in the series of events, but one bullet struck the front door of the Calhoun Avenue grill and another lodged in the wall near a service counter.

Dorian property donated to city

The possibility of constructing a municipal parking lot on the southeast corner of Delmar Avenue and 19th Street to replace buildings damaged by fire Aug. 13 was reported today after the owners of one of the two damaged buildings announced it is donating the property to the city.

Mayor Paul Schuler said he was notified of the donation by Eric's World, Inc., operators of the Dorlan Shop at 1302 Nineteenth Street which was destroyed in the fire.

Robert Kelly, city building inspector, said that negotiations also have been under way with the owners of the corner building which formerly housed the Factory Outlet Clothing Store to determine if they will consider similar action.

Kelly said if the corner building also is acquired by the city, it would provide space for a parking lot facility.

Cyclist hurt

Joseph Doolin, 17, of 2118 Lee Ave., was injured when his motorcycle struck the rear of the car of Thomas Green, 2658 Buenger Blvd., stopped for traffic in the 2300 block of Madison Avenue at 4:10 p.m. Thursday.

Doolin suffered a cut to his chin and abrasions to both knees and his right wrist. X-rays were taken at St. Elizabeth Hospital and he was released.

DAMAGE MOBILE HOME
Vandalism which will cost more than $100 to repair was done to the mobile home of Sheila Lewis, lot 35, Holiday Mobile Home Park, last week. The occupant said she is in the process of moving and could not determine if anything was stolen. A rear door was forced open, causing about $50 damage to the door. Broken were a large storm window, a kitchen light fixture and a water faucet in the kitchen sink.

Grain dryer fire

Fire last week destroyed about 3,000 bushels of soybeans in a dryer at the Archer Daniels Midland Co. grain elevator and soybean processing plant on Cargill Road.

The cause of the fire is not known, but firemen said more than a foot of soybeans over a valve kept the sprinkler system from operating when the fire started.

The grain elevator was not damaged, but the soybeans were destroyed. Firemen fought the smoldering fire for two hours.

Future Secretaries initiate, install

The fifth annual initiation and installation of the Granite City High School Future Secretaries Association (FSA) for students from both South and North High Schools were held last week in the South High School auditorium.

The Tri-Cities Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (NSA) sponsors the FSA organization.

Mrs. Charlise Vunovic, chairman of the FSA committee, gave the welcoming address. She said the 43 new members and 20 senior members for a total of 63 individuals makes the Granite City FSA chapter among the largest in the state.

Guest speakers were Mrs. Anne Smith, president of the Tri-Cities NSA Chapter, and Larry Sidener, president of Sidener Supply Co. and a past chairman of the FSA committee.

New members included Lori Adams, Pat Bates, Kim Barr, Alison Bell, Donna Burke, Bev Camren, Debbie Carmichael, Cindy Cripps, Becky Dudley, Pam Evans, Cindy Fuhrman, Robin Harrelaux, Sheila Hints, Judy Huiak, Barb Knipping, Debbie McLaughlin, Wanda Mertz, Mary Miller, Lisa Mitchell, Karen Nevels, Teresa Niemeyer, Karen Norris, Glenda Oliver, Joy Patrick, Rosa Peralez, Pam Simpson, Cindy White, Mary Winfield and Brenda Wood, all from North High School.

Initiates from South High School were Roxann Beyran, Lisa Camp, Marge Decker, Kathleen DeLuntz, Marianne Garino, Brenda Gerkin, Elaine Greeting, Debbie Grady, Debbie Griffin, Lynna Hill, Leslie Houser, Janet Lampe, Lisa St. Cin and Karen Wood.

Installation of the newly elected officers was conducted by Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Sally Gracey, a past president of the host chapter.

The 1975-76 officers are: Nancy Bezan, president; Bonnie Ross, vice-president; Kathy Jones, recording secretary; Rhonda Brawley, corresponding secretary and Becky Batson, treasurer. Board members-at-large are Jean Greer and Cindy Large.

Miss Hazel Towbery, FSA Business Teacher of the Year, spoke on the topic "A Teacher's View" to conclude the program.

World Community Day Friday at St. Peter

World Community Day, an annual observance sponsored by Church Women United, will be held Friday at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, beginning at 7 p.m.

The theme of this year's celebration will be "One Community Under God," with emphasis on concrete world problems, including hunger and peace.

According to Mrs. Ronald Pennell, coordinator of the Days of Celebration, Friday's program, will be the last opportunity to make offerings for the "Water for Women" project, which the group undertook in the spring of this year.

To date, Church Women United in the Quad-Cities through Church World Service has financed the installation of three wells in arid regions of Africa at a total cost of $750.

Funding for the project has been achieved strictly through donations from individuals and church groups.

The public is invited to attend the celebration, which will be followed by a coffee hour hosted by the women of the host church.

Garden clubs fete officers

Garden club presidents and past directors of District V, Garden Club of Illinois, Inc. were honored at the annual President Council Day luncheon last week at Signal Hill Lutheran Church, Belleville.

The welcoming address was given by Mrs. Harold Mahoba, president of Winstanley Garden Club which was celebrating its 40th anniversary and hosted the event.

The response was given by Mrs. Finis English and Mrs. Herbert Holmgren gave the invocation. Mrs. Charles Seaman, St. Clair County Club, led the pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Arvid Nelson, Lebanon, director of District V, addressed the assembly of 70 women and introduced the presidents of the 14 federated clubs and the past directors who held special places of honor in the seating arrangements.

Following the luncheon, program chairman Mrs. Earl Jukes introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Daniel Poor, St. Louis, widely known lecturer and flower arranger.

A teacher of Ikabana and American designs, she has taught courses at Shaw's Garden and is a nationally accredited amateur judge. Her topic was "New Dimensions in Flower Arranging" and she demonstrated designs.

A nominating committee was elected to submit names for the officers of director, vice-director and corresponding secretary. Those named from Granite City were Mrs. A. A. Malotki, Gardenaires Club and Mrs. Fred Orr, Cloverview Club.

Artistic arrangements made by club members were displayed and a white ribbon was won by Mrs. Richard Branding, Cloverview, for an entry in the class "Autumn Leaves" using all dried material.

In the horticulture division, Mrs. Wilmer Winter received four blue ribbons for house plant entries and Mrs. George Stearns, Garden Study Club, received one blue and one red ribbon. Mrs. B. C. O'Neill, Cloverview, earned a red ribbon for an entry of marigolds.

Other members from Granite City who attended the event were: Mrs. William Bradley and Mrs. John Jenkins, Cloverview; Mrs. Charles Kohl, Mrs. Mabel Long and Mrs. C. E. Eade, Gardenaires; and Mrs. W. C. Cooley, Mrs. Martha St. Ivany and Mrs. Fay Smolich, Garden Study.

Kathryn Bridges and Edwin Holbrook wed

The Rev. Al Slayter officiated at a double ring ceremony 7 p.m. Sept. 13 at Calvary Baptist Church, uniting in marriage Miss Kathryn Bridges and Edwin Holbrook.

David Tripp presided at the piano and sang "We've Only Just Begun" and the "Wedding March."

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. James Denson, Rural Route One, Granite City and Omer Bridges of Hartford, Ill. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William Hyde of St. Louis.

For her wedding, the former Miss Bridges selected a full-length white satin dress designed with a high neckline and long tapered sleeves, edged with lace and seed pearls. The A-line skirt was accented with lace medallions.

She wore a lace Juliet cap to secure a long lace-trimmed veil and held a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

Honor attendant Barbara Cash and the bridesmaids, Connie McKenzie and Kay Bridges, a sister of the bride, wore identical empire-style dresses in red silk, complemented with matching jackets.

Each held a bouquet of white carnations, tinted red, and red roses.

The flower girl, Elaine Denson, a step-sister of the bride, was dressed in a matching frock and carried a miniature bouquet.

Glen Shea served as the best man. Tom Bridges, the bride's brother, and Mike Wiley were groomsmen. Serving as usher was Neil E. Dettwiler, an uncle of the bride.

A reception was held after the service at the home of the bride, 2229 Marshall Ave.

The former Miss Bridges graduated from Granite City High School and was employed at Bussman Fuse Mfg. Co., St. Louis.

Her husband was graduated from Jennings High School, St. Louis, and also worked for the St. Louis firm. He is now serving with the U. S. Army.

The couple are residing near Fort Hood, Tex.

Edwards-Cruse nuptials at Sacred Heart Church

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Pamela Cruse, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cruse, 2853 Washington Ave., and Gary Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards of East Alton.

Pamela, orange-tinted mums and burning tapers in branched candelabra decorated the sanctuary for the double ring ceremony performed Sept. 26 by Father Jim Hanson, a cousin of the bride, and Father James Neuman at 6:30 p.m.

Guitar music was provided by Joannie Pieper, Carol Severjohn and Larry Heagy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long A-line style gown of white organza over taffeta and a lace-bordered mantilla veil.

Chantilly lace accented the empire bodice, scoop neckline and long bishop sleeves and encircled the hem.

She carried a cascade of white gardenias and roses with baby's breath.

Maid of honor Miss Robyn Cruse, a sister of the bride, chose an apricot colored halter dress with a matching long sleeve jacket.

Bridesmaids Diane Koishor, Nancy Busking and Mary Jean Epperson were attired in orange colored gowns identical in design to the honor attendant's dress.

They held bouquets of apricot carnations, pom poms and dried star flowers.

The flower girls, Stephanie Jean and Tracy Lynn Cruse, nieces of the bride, wore similar style frocks in an apricot shade and carried miniature bridal bouquets.

Attending the groom as best man was Jack Stallings, Mark Holshouser, John Wieser and John Edwards, the groom's brother, served as groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Herman and David Cruse, brothers of the bride, who also served as candlelighters.

A reception was held at the Croatian Hall, Madison, following the service.

A graduate of St. Teresa Academy, the bride also graduated from St. Louis College of Business as a medical-dental assistant. She is presently employed at the Colonial Haven Nursing Home.

The groom graduated from Granite City High School and recently completed four years of service with the U.S. Air Force, including a tour of duty in the Philippines.

They are now residing in Granite City after a wedding trip to Denver, Colo.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cruse wore a long green dress. The groom's mother, Mrs. Edwards, selected a full-length rose colored gown. Both wore orchid corsages.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Schieber, an uncle and aunt of the bride from Lake Isabella, Calif.

Sister Frances Gabriel, the bride's aunt from Paris, Tex.; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Edwards, Pearl, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Walz, San Bernardino, Calif., all grandparents of the groom.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN

Here we are in November, only 52 days before Christmas! It certainly is time to talk Turkey; of course we have been advertising Turkeys right along because they are by far the best meat buy in the store.

Turkey thighs are an exceptional buy; very little bone in a thigh, at 59¢ per lb. you can make a very tasty meal for just a few dimes per serving.

John Gallauer, our General Manager and resident liquor expert, tells us that he made a buy on wine, Half Gallons to sell for $1.79. Four varieties: Pink or White Chablis, Sangria (we learned about Sangria in the Canary Islands) and Burgundy. Try it; you'll like it.

We made a big hit with 79¢ per lb. bacon last week so, one more time: and Ray Rushing, one of our key people charged specifically with Dairy and Frozen Food merchandising, has come up with a 59¢ per dozen large Grade A egg to go with it. In fact if you will check today's ad, you'll find a complete breakfast on sale.

Guest comment—State, local governments need to keep in mind that Illinois population rise, industrial job departures are leading to serious economic problems

Illinois Manufacturers' Association—This state ranks a poor 35th among the continental U. S. states in attractiveness of its business environment. That finding was included in an analysis and rating of the states by the Fantus Company, a leading national consultant to business specializing in plant and office relocation. The 221-page study was prepared at the request of the IMA.

Maurice Fulton, president of Fantus, said the rating provides corporate clients with a "feel" for the business environment in states in which they might consider capital investments. The rating system included factors such as taxes, labor laws, unemployment compensation and worker's compensation costs, size and cost of government, welfare costs and trends, state indebtedness, and similar state and local government-related conditions.

Recent large increases in unemployment and worker's compensation costs to Illinois employers are not reflected in the Fantus survey. Nor does the study include the relative severity of state pollution control standards and programs. Illinois manufacturers have complained bitterly about the recent shift increases in unemployment and worker's compensation costs as well as the state's environment program.

The top ten states for attractive business climate in the Fantus report were, in order: Texas, Alabama, Virginia, South Dakota, North Carolina, North Carolina, Florida, Arkansas, Indiana and Utah. All but Indiana have "right to work" laws which forbid compulsory union membership in order to be employed. The worst ten states in terms of business climate were: New York, at the bottom, and California, Massachusetts, Michigan, Delaware, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Oregon and Washington.

Orville Bergren, IMA president, said: "Illinois' low rating in the Fantus study serves to explain and corroborate facts revealed recently by the U. S. Department of Commerce regarding industrial job losses in this state."

"Between the two most recent comprehensive job censuses conducted by the Commerce Department in 1967 and 1972, Illinois lost more than 91,000 manufacturing jobs, or 6.5 per cent of its industrial jobs. This state ranked 46th among the states in total industrial jobs lost and 40th in terms of percentage of jobs lost, among the worst showings of any state."

"There was a net loss in Illinois of 195 companies or plants employing 20 or more people during that period. We had the lowest business climate ranking, the greatest loss of manufacturing jobs, and the greatest percentage of loss of such jobs among any of the states bordering this state."

In a survey of its members by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association to determine the cause of the flight of jobs from this state, four factors stood out in the consensus opinion of participating firms:

1. Illinois is a high-cost state for most manufacturers, with comparatively high wage rates and with productivity hindered by union work rules.

2. Total Illinois state and local taxes, including real and personal property, as well as corporate income and sales taxes, are considered high. The Chicago $3 per month per employee head tax is particularly irksome for Chicago employers.

3. Illinois government is increasingly considered by employers as being pro-union and anti-business. This impression was fortified by the recent enactment in Springfield of the extremely costly unemployment and worker's compensation increases, and particularly in giving unemployment compensation to workers who voluntarily refuse to cross picket lines of strikers.

4. Many of the actions by state regulatory authorities, particularly in pollution control, are considered excessive in requirements and costs and exhibiting an anti-industry bias.

The first ten states in the Fantus rankings, most of them Southern states, averaged an increase in manufacturing jobs of 13 per cent in the five-year period. They won 384,000 more manufacturing jobs.

The worst ten averaged a decrease of 6.7 per cent. Since many of those states are welfare dependent industrial states, the 6.7 per cent figure represents 665,000 manufacturing jobs lost. Nationally, a total of 282,000 jobs were lost in manufacturing, a 1.5 per cent reduction.

Among the findings in the Fantus report were the following:

A. State and local taxes per capita in Illinois are $613.03 annually, placing Illinois 38th among the states. This means that these taxes in Illinois are higher than those of 37 other states. Illinois state spending has increased from $5 billion in 1971 to over $10 billion planned for 1976.

B. The per capita costs for public welfare recipients in Illinois are $136.46, making Illinois the fifth highest spender among the states for welfare on a per capita basis.

C. Illinois ranks high in percentage of its manufacturing workers that are unionized with 35.6 per cent. This is higher than 43 other states. The report reasoned that the lower the proportion, the greater freedom in management and more favorable atmosphere for investment of new capital. The ten best states for business climate averaged 16.1 per cent unionized.

D. In percentage of time lost due to work stoppages, Illinois ranked 38th, meaning that the state suffered more time lost because of strikes and other work stoppages, as a percentage of all hours worked, than did 37 other states.

There is increasing competition among the states for industrial jobs. Each 100 manufacturing jobs support 68 non-industrial jobs and are the backbone of a state's economy.

Many states are aggressively and effectively soliciting Illinois firms with enticements of low taxes, financial and training assistance and lower wages. Even Wisconsin and Michigan, which finished 34th and 45th, respectively, in the Fantus rating, have slashed taxes on business recently—Wisconsin by $140 million and Michigan by $97.5 million.

As a Michigan full-page ad said in a business magazine, "We lowered business taxes by $97.5 million because we need the money." IMA President Orville Bergren has warned: "The Fantus study confirms that Illinois has a real and growing problem. Losing industrial jobs while increasing population spells unemployment."

"State and local government authorities must be constantly mindful of the impact of their actions on the business climate of this state."

Legislators insulated from inflation, rewarded for fiscal irresponsibility

To the Editor:

Most people are aware that on July 30, a bill was passed by the U. S. Congress to provide annual cost-of-living increases in salary to all 535 members of Congress, in addition to the many other federal executives who were then making $36,000-$60,000 a year and higher.

This provision was added on to an amendment to the Postal Safety Act which would place the Postal Service under provisions of the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

Public hearings were not held by either the House or the Senate on those sections dealing with their pay increase. House rules were suspended so that the bill passed both houses within 24 hours.

The bill removed all incentive for congressmen and senators to curb inflation since, as inflation rises, so do their salaries.

In effect, congressmen have devised a mechanism to reward themselves for fiscal irresponsibility.

Missouri Cong. Jerry L. Ford introduced a bill, H.R. 9470, to repeal those sections of the "Postal Safety Act" which deal with the pay raise and annual cost-of-living increases for congressmen and senators. It has been assigned to the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee for consideration.

If readers believe as I do that public visibility and public accountability are vital to a democratic form of government, then it is urgent that they write or phone House Speaker Carl Albert (D-Okla.) and Committee Chairman David N. Henderson (D-N.C.) and insist that H.R. 9470 receive immediate consideration by the committee and by the House of Representatives.

Otherwise, the bill may never see the light of day. Illinois and Missouri congressmen on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee are William Clay (D-Mo.), Paul Simon (D-Ill.), Edward J. Derwinski (R-Ill.) and Gene Taylor (R-Mo.).

The Democratic-Republican ratio on the committee is 19:1. All U.S. congressmen may be contacted by writing to: The Honorable (name), U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515, or calling (202) 224-3121 and asking for the legislator's office. A "public opinion telegram" of 75 words can be sent for less than $2.25.

If you almost have a heart attack every time you go through the checkout counter of a store or at the gas station, then you owe it to yourself to insist that your employees, the congressmen and senators, act in your best interest by passing H.R. 9470!

You will probably hear, "Congress only passed a 5 per cent raise when it could have passed an 8.66 per cent raise." Remember, you heard similar rhetoric regarding bread and a gallon of gasoline. "Gas will go to one dollar a gallon." Then, the 60-65 cents per gallon you pay doesn't seem so much even though it's almost double what you used to pay.

Congressmen and senators must not be insulated from inflation, nor soon may be paying $1 for a pack of gum.

Congress must pass H.R. 9470 to renew the public's confidence, which is so low now that it may never recover.

Jim McPike enters legislative race

Jim McPike, 32, of Alton, announced last week that he will seek election to a seat in the Illinois General Assembly. McPike, currently employed by the 3M Company as a sales engineer, will seek the Democratic nomination for representative in the 56th Legislative District. The district includes the Quad-City area.

He said that he was prompted into seeking public office because of his interest in the American system of government. McPike said, "the lack of trust in public officials, which culminated with the resignation of former President Richard Nixon," brought him into the political arena.

"You cannot restore this lost faith by concentrating strictly on the Presidency," McPike said in his announcement. "You build trust by electing honest, dedicated people into every level of government."

In announcing his candidacy, McPike said he had a deep concern for being a legislator that represented all of the 56th District, including areas which are sometimes overlooked or forgotten.

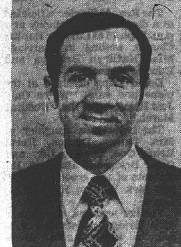

"The candidate selected for the legislative seat vacated by Horace Calvo (of Granite City) was chosen on the basis of personal friendships and not on qualifications," McPike said. "Candidates from various parts of the district like Madison, Venice, Canton, Nameoki and Alton-Godfrey, were not given serious consideration."

The candidate said in his announcement, "The people in the 56th Legislative District deserve a legislator that is first, highly qualified, and second is sensitive to their wants and responsive to their needs."

The candidate is the son of John H. McPike of Alton who is secretary-treasurer of the Carpenter's Union Local 1808.

McPike is married and has three school-aged children attending classes in the Alton public school system.

The 32-year-old candidate holds two university degrees. In 1965 he graduated with a bachelor's degree in engineering from the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., and in 1970 added another bachelor's degree, in general business, from the University of Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Fla. McPike also earned a master's degree in economics from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

McPike served as an officer and jet pilot in the Navy from 1965 to 1970. Since 1970 he has been employed by the 3M Company.

Foreclosure rates in state defended

Home foreclosure rates in Illinois are the highest in the nation, and an attempt by some Chicago-based consumer groups to indicate this is a "reprehensible" approach to the problem of the high foreclosure rate is most effective when fitted to the individual homeowner. Trying to design a law for the entire state could have the opposite effect and actually cause an increase in mortgage lending rates and foreclosure rates.

"Recent stories on abuses in home mortgage foreclosures have centered on FIA loans, which account for less than 10 per cent of all home loans made."

"The borrower least responsible for foreclosure problems is the conventional home owner—would be the one penalized with higher costs," Froemling predicted.

"Foreclosure is in the interest of neither the borrower nor the lender, and savings and loans are anxious to apply foreclosure procedures that will enable a homeowner to prevent default and foreclosure," he said.

The view that specially legislated foreclosure procedures are needed will only increase the cost of making mortgages, Froemling said.

"The truth is that Illinois has had only eight foreclosures in over 10,000 loans, while the national rate is 10 for every 10,000 loans held. Some groups, with a reckless disregard of the truth, have implied that the Illinois rate was as high as 200 per cent above the national average. This simply isn't true."

"The low foreclosure rate in relation to the current high unemployment rate in the state is proof that savings and loan foreclosure procedures are effective and no legislative remedy is required."

"Where abuses in the home loan field have occurred in FIA loans, federal regulations have been instituted to clear them up," Froemling said.

"But to urge upon the public and the legislature mandated foreclosure procedures, which most lenders are already practicing, is to impose an additional servicing cost on the mortgage holder. How is the consumer benefited from this?"

"Foreclosure procedure in the few times when a delinquent approach to the foreclosure is most effective when fitted to the individual homeowner. Trying to design a law for the entire state could have the opposite effect and actually cause an increase in mortgage lending rates and foreclosure rates."

TRUCK BURGLARY

Frank Baker of Glen Carbon reported to police that he parked his pickup truck in the Waggoner parking lot at the Maers Industrial Park, Madison 87 on Thursday and returned at 4 p.m. to find the vent window forced and the truck burglarized. Reported taken were tools valued at $60, a citizen band radio worth $135, and a .32 caliber pistol worth $158.

SCHOOL BURGLARY
A $387 dicto machine was stolen from Webster School, 25th and Kate streets, it was reported Thursday. Entry was believed gained by climbing up the fire escape and breaking the east window to the kindergarten room.

Travel in European cities described

Travelers Abroad met last week at Frasier Junior High with President Roy Lynn presiding.

Edmund Firner introduced the speaker of the evening, Eugene Smallman, history instructor at Granite City High School South, who showed views of six European cities which he recently visited—London, Paris, Rome, Florence, Madrid, Toledo—interspersing them with excellent historical comment.

In London, Smallman said, the American tourist is greatly surprised by the ease of transportation. Almost a century ago the great English statesman Gladstone said, "The best way for a visitor to view London is from a top seat on a double-decker bus."

Gladstone was speaking of horse-drawn buses, Smallman said, but his statement still holds true in this motorized age. British bus riders are invariably courteous to one another, as are the drivers and conductors. The shoving, yelling, quarreling which afflict New York are unknown in London. Likewise the gentlemanly bearing of the London taxidriver is quite amazing to the Americans.

When the tourist must sacrifice sightseeing for swift mobility across the vast city, he finds the "tube," or subway, a marvel of speed, convenience and efficiency. Smallman noted there is no graffiti on the subway walls and, although the British "bobbies" are still unarmored, there is no mugging. Moreover, London seems to have solved the pollution problem: the air is clean.

"The only touch of unfriendliness," Smallman commented, occurred "when I boldly sauntered into the Bank of England, sometimes called the 'old lady of Threadneedle Street,' with two cameras slung on my shoulders. A tall, double-faced man in uniform confronted me at once and asked, 'Where is your appointment?'"

The subways in Paris are fully as efficient as London's, but in addition they are decorated with statuary and oil paintings, Smallman said. He showed several pictures of the Eiffel Tower, which continues to be a tourist attraction despite the long clamor for its removal. Built for the world's fair of 1889, the tower might well have been dismantled by this time, but the invention of radio some 30 years later made it so ideal for a broadcasting station that the demand for its demolition had ceased.

Rome, unlike Paris and London, has no good subway system. Italian taxi drivers and Italians in general are the worst drivers in the world; they seem to have homicide in their eyes every moment they are behind the wheel, Small said.

Nevertheless Rome, the eternal city, with its 400 fountains, St. Peter's church with its 10,000 square feet of paintings by Michaelangelo, the Colosseum, and the many other reminders of her ancient glory, will continue to draw tourists from all parts of the world, he added.

The most unusual pictures shown by Smallman were several shots from inside Hadrian's tomb, and a few views of the opera "Aida," which he witnessed in the old baths of Caracalla.

In discussing the royal palace in Madrid, Smallman pointed out that as Britain has been a monarchy for centuries, interrupted only by the brief rule of Oliver Cromwell, 1649-1660, her royal palaces have always been well kept, whereas the palace at Versailles suffered great deterioration during and after the reign of terror in 1793, so that the present-day furnishings are practically all replacements.

The palace in Madrid has had a different history. It was a royal residence for centuries until Alfonso XIII fled in 1931. Now that Franco's dictatorship is drawing to a close, the restoration of the monarchy seems likely, in which case the palace will again become a royal residence and will be closed to tourists, Smallman commented.

MRS. MARK DIAK, who was married at Christ Episcopal Church, Springfield, Ill. She is the former Sarah Romaine Shaffer, a daughter of Mrs. Mary Pranke of Springfield, Ill., and the late Venerable Rev. Frank L. Shaffer.

Diak-Shaffer wedding at Springfield church

Wedding vows were repeated by Miss Sarah Romaine Shaffer and Mark Diak in an early evening ceremony on Oct. 18 at Christ Episcopal Church in Springfield, Ill.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Pranke of Springfield and the late Venerable Rev. Frank L. Shaffer. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Diak of Washington Park. Mr. Diak is formerly from Granite City.

Officiating at the double ring service were the Rev. Gary Greenfield of Belleville and the Rev. Hobart Heistand of Springfield. The altar was decorated with bouquets of white lily mums.

Escorted by her grandfather, S. D. Shearman of Bryan, Ohio, the bride chose a long white gown of chiffon over satin.

Lace motifs accented the high neckline, traced the sheer yoke and trimmed the long tapered sleeves, ending in flared cuffs.

A lace jacket cap held her lace-trimmed cathedral veil and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis, orchids and hoya, festooned with long streamers.

A sister of the bride, Miss Ann Shaffer of Springfield, served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Diane Diak of St. Louis, a sister of the groom, and Marty Kienle of Columbus, Ohio, a college classmate of the bride.

The honor attendant chose a blue floral crepe dress with long sleeves and the attendants selected long gowns of blue jersey.

Each held an arrangement of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

James Pears Jr., a cousin of the groom, was best man. John Kuroski, Fairview Heights, David Unger, Washington Park, Richard and Frank Diak, both of Granite City, and Tom Shaffer of Minneapolis, Minn., completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Guests were received by the newly-married couple at a reception at the Springfield Elks Club. The rehearsal dinner was at the Heritage House there.

A Springfield High School graduate, the bride attended DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind. She is a microphotographer at the Environmental Protection Agency.

The groom was graduated from Assumption High School and received a bachelor of arts degree from DePauw University. He is employed by Dwyer, Costello and Co., a certified public accountant firm in St. Louis.

They are now residing in Collinsville.

Amvet scholarship grants available

Worship scholarship forms were taken to local high schools last week by Mrs. Jackie Petras, president of Amvets Auxiliary Unit 51, to enable eligible students apply for grants-in-aid under the auxiliary's sponsorship.

Details of the program were discussed by auxiliary members at their meeting last week at the Amvets Post Home, 3100 Lakeview Drive. Mrs. Petras presided and Mrs. Trudy McGowan, chaplain, gave the opening prayer.

A donation was voted for the Donny Ogle Trust Fund in Collinsville.

Mrs. Ann Tucker was named chairman of a "Spook-Tacular" party, held on Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the Post Home, for Amvets and their families. A "spook walk and spook house" were planned for the adult-children's social activity.

Mrs. Melba Manninger won a prize and the white elephant award went to Mrs. Marie Damal. Mrs. Betty Wilkins and Mrs. Manninger served refreshments.

MRS. PHILLIP H. SHERIDAN III. The former Miss Cindy Louise Reppert, whose wedding was solemnized at the Holy Redeemer Catholic Church, Webster Groves, Mo.

Cindy Reppert marries Phillip Henry Sheridan

Miss Cindy Louise Reppert, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Reppert of Webster Groves, became the bride of Phillip Henry Sheridan III, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip H. Sheridan Jr. of Granite City, on Oct. 18 at the Holy Redeemer Catholic Church, Webster Groves. Maid of honor was Miss Judi Galyon. The bridesmaids included Misses Mary Ann Becker, Karen Cermak, and Kathy Gerdes, all of Webster Groves; and Mrs. Karen Karandjoff Crawford of Edwardsville. Susan Becherer of Granite City, a cousin of the groom, was the flower girl. The groom chose Steven Arbeiter as his best man. Serving as groomsmen were Tom Zarlingo, Brian Greathouse, Bob Palus of Granite City and Matthew Reppert, the bride's brother. Escorting the guests to their seats were Tim, Paul and Matthew Sheridan, all brothers of the groom. The couple is now residing in St. Louis following a honeymoon trip to the Lake of the Ozarks. The bride graduated from William Woods College, Fulton, Mo., with a bachelor's degree in art. She was a member of Alpha Phi social sorority and graduated Magna Cum Laude. Her husband graduated in June from Westminster College, Fulton, where he was president of Kappe Alpha social fraternity. He also graduated with honors and holds a degree in English. Currently, he is enrolled in the St. Louis University graduate school of business administration.

BRIDE-ELECT. Miss Susan Marie Wells, whose betrothal to Alex McGehee is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells, 625 Jefferson Ave., Venice, A Nov. 21 wedding is planned.

Chapter collects funds for UNICEF

Theta Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority collected for UNICEF last week, followed by a Halloween party at the home of Kathy Farnbach. Plans for the activity were completed during a business meeting held in the home of Miss Ivy Humphrey. Arrangements for a hayride on Nov. 8 and to visit the old Courthouse in St. Louis on Nov. 23 were finalized. The chapter also made tentative plans for a fall rush party. Attending the meeting were guests, Jane Davis and Carol Cathey, and members, Karen Knoch, Barb Hente, Maxine Kayich and Carolyn Goodwin.

Susan Wells is engaged

The engagement and approaching wedding of Miss Susan Marie Wells and Alex McGehee are being announced by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells, 625 Jefferson Ave., Venice. Parents of the groom-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGehee, reside at 822 Lincoln Ave., Venice. A graduate of Althoff Catholic High School, Miss Wells is attending Belleville Area College. She also is a piano instructor at the National School of Music. Her fiancé was graduated from Venice High School and currently is employed as a storekeeper clerk at Reilly Tar and Chemical Corp. The betrothed couple is planning to be married on Nov. 21 at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church in Venice.

Meet our outdoor family for your outdoor family

Ours is the new family of Scouts for '76. Rugged. Durable. Fun. Like the new four-wheel drive International Scout Traveler™, big enough for an outdoor family, with more room for plenty of gear. In fact, 103 cubic feet with the optional rear seat folded down.

The new Scout Terra™ is the first right-sized four-wheel drive. Built to get sportsmen with a lot of gear off the beaten trail. It's the only pickup made with 11 cubic feet of in-cab, "lockable" storage—standard.

And the rugged Scout II. Maneuverable enough to go where most other four-wheelers fear to tread, yet big enough to carry everything you need.

All the new Scouts have four-cylinder engines for fuel economy. Or a choice of two powerful V-8's to match any driving need.

So make the introduction. Bring your family over.

ORDINANCE NO. 75-14 AN ORDINANCE REGULATING ENCROACHMENTS ON PUBLIC RIGHT-OF-WAY IN THE CITY OF VENICE, MADISON COUNTY, ILLINOIS
WHEREAS, THE CITY OF VENICE hereinafter known as the CITY, has received and through its Department of Transportation, hereinafter known as the STATE, have entered into an agreement relative to the improvement of Collinsville Avenue from Madison Avenue easterly to the east corporate limits of Venice, and; WHEREAS, in order to facilitate said improvement, it is necessary for the CITY to adopt an ordinance regulating encroachments on the right-of-way for said improvement in accordance with the following definition:
Roadway Right-of-Way is defined as those areas existing or acquired by dedication or by fee simple for highway purposes; also, the areas acquired by temporary easement during the time the easement is in effect;
Project Right-of-Way is defined as those areas within the CITY, STATE and the Federal Highway Administration which are free of encroachments except as hereinafter defined;
Encroachment is defined as any building, fence, wall, or any other structure or object of any kind (with the exception of utilities and public right-of-way signs) which is located or maintained in, on, under or over any portion of the project right-of-way or the roadway right-of-way when no project right-of-way line has been established;
Permissible Encroachment is defined as any existing advertising, marquee, advertising sign or similar overhanging structure supported from a building immediately adjacent to the limit of the plat of street where there is a sidewalk extending to the building line and which does not impair the free and safe flow of traffic on the highway; the permission of overhanging signs is not to be construed as being applicable to signs supported from poles constructed outside the project right-of-way line and not confirmed by adjacent buildings;
Construction Easement Area is defined as that area lying between the project right-of-way limits and the plat of street limits within which the CITY, by its current in the establishment of the project right-of-way lines, will permit the STATE or the CITY, to perform all necessary construction operations; and, WHEREAS, Representatives of the CITY, the STATE, and the Federal Highway Administration have, by mutual inspection, cooperatively established project right-of-way lines and have determined the disposition of encroachments;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, by the CITY COUNCIL of Venice, Madison County, Illinois:

Sielaff to speak here

Wednesday morning's prayer breakfast, sponsored by the Granite City Rotary Club, will feature Allyn R. Sielaff, director of the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Sielaff was appointed by Gov.
Daniel Walker as director of the department in June 1973.

The agency he heads is responsible for supervision and rehabilitation of 3,000 juvenile and 11,000 adult offenders.

It operates 18 state institutions, eight work release centers and two community centers (halfway houses).

The agency also is responsible for parole services, the Parole and Pardon Board, community-related programs and statewide inspections of all local jails and juvenile detention homes.

Indict 3 in local cases

A Madison County grand jury
Thursday returned indictments against three Granite City men in two local cases.

Robert Austin, 21, of 2325
Delta Ave., and Robert Macke, 18, of 2240 Thirteenth St., were named in true bills alleging one count of aggravated battery and one count of armed violence against each.

They allegedly fired a blast from a shotgun out a window of Austin's auto at a car they were passing, the blast damaging the side of the car. One pellet struck the left hand of the driver, John Parker, Cairo, Ill., at 21st and Monroe streets Aug. 14.

Austin's auto was stopped in the 2000 block of Washington Avenue a short time later and police alleged finding a loaded shotgun in the car.

Also indicted was Alan
Hampton, 27, of 2258 Grand Ave., who was charged with two counts of unlawful possession of a controlled substance and with unlawful possession of cannabis.

Officers alleged he was found with marijuana, barbiturates and a substance containing heroin Sept. 3. He was arrested during a series of raids co-
